1. To be an author, a person must have made substantive contributions to the study by fulfilling at least 3 of the criteria presented in the following table.
2. It is mandatory for all authors to prepare the outline of the manuscript or to intellectually review or criticize the content of the manuscript.
3. It is of all authors' responsibility to approve the final version of the article before publication.
4. All authors are also expected to fulfill the first 3 criteria stated below.
5. Those who do not fulfill the specified number of contributions and conditions are to be mentioned in the final "Acknowledgements" section of the article.
6. The terms set forth herein have been arranged in accordance with the guidelines of the Council of Science Editors (CSE) and International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE).

All the individuals designated as authors must qualify for authorship according to one or more of the above criteria, and all those who qualify must be listed. When a large multi-center group has conducted the work, the group should identify the individuals who accept direct responsibility for the manuscript. When submitting a group manuscript, the corresponding author should clearly indicate the order in which the authors should be listed, and should clearly identify each individual author as well as the group name (if any). The order of authorship in the byline should be a joint decision of the co-authors. Each author should participate sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for his or her contributions to the study, the content and for any conflict of interests.
